

E Write the Present Perfect or Past Perfect form of the verbs in brackets (affirmative, negative or interrogative).

- Are you hungry? No. We have just eaten (just / eat).
- The neighbours haven't complained (not complain) about the loud music yet.
- Until last summer, Mary had never travelled (never / travel) abroad.
- I hear you're having a party. Who have you already invited (already / invite)?
- He didn't want to see the film because he had already seen (already / see) it.

F Choose the correct meaning for each sentence.

- By the time the match started, the rain had stopped.
  - The rain stopped soon after the start of the match.
  - ☒ It wasn't raining when the match started.
- She'd never been to Paris until she went there on business.
  - ☒ The first time she went to Paris, it was for business.
  - She didn't go to Paris for business.
- The Browns moved to the country after their children had left home.
  - ☒ The children left home and then the Browns moved to the country.
  - The Browns moved to the country and then the children left home.
- They have had their dog since it was a puppy.
  - They no longer have the dog.
  - ☒ They still have the dog.

Error Correction

G Correct the errors.

- He thought it was the best music he ever heard. ~~x~~
He thought it was the best music he had ever heard
- We went to a film and then we had gone out for coffee. ~~x~~
We went to a film and then we went out for coffee
- How many of Michael Crichton's books did you read so far? ~~x~~
How many of Michael Crichton's books have you read so far?
- When has your brother started playing the guitar? ~~x~~
When did your brother start playing the guitar?
- I didn't recognise her because I have never met her before. ~~x~~
I didn't recognise her because I had never met her before.

Grammar Review

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Choose the correct answers.

- I was meeting / have met / ☒ met Jill last summer and we've been friends since then.
- Do you wait / Have you waited / ☒ Are you waiting to buy tickets? I'm sorry, but there are no tickets left.
- We haven't heard / didn't hear / ☒ hadn't heard of Stomp until they came to perform in our city.
- Please speak quietly! Mark studies / ☒ is studying / has studied for an exam.
- We had already eaten when Mum was arriving / ☒ arrived / had arrived with a pizza.

Vocabulary: MUSIC

A Choose the correct answers.

- Nearly a hundred bands took part in the music festival / rock.
- I love listening to Latin sounds / trance.
- In the 1950s, hip-hop / jazz was very popular.
- Nobody heard the door open because the music was loud / slow.
- Everyone had a very soft / exciting time on the trip.
- In Britain, it's traditional / boring to eat turkey for Christmas dinner.

B Complete the sentences with the words below.

an instrument / loud / classical / download exciting / a video clip / a CD / a club

- I'm listening to a CD that I bought yesterday.
- Do you know how to play an instrument?
- Many teenagers think that classical music is boring.
- Jane and Max are watching a video clip.
- They live near a club and go there twice a week.
- Let's download some music and listen to it later.
- I love rap; it's really exciting.
- I don't go to discos and clubs because I hate loud music.

WORDPOWER

Verbs with Similar Meanings

C Choose the correct answers.

- Mark is listening to / hearing the news.
- Please listen to / hear me.
- Have you heard / listened to Usher's new song yet?

Topic Vocabulary Review

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

1 Choose the words / expressions that CANNOT complete the sentences.

- We all enjoyed the ..... we went to last night.
  - concert
  - ☒ video clip
  - restaurant
  - club
- It's pleasant listening to ..... music.
  - quiet
  - soft
  - loud
  - ☒ expensive
- Janet prefers wearing ..... clothes.
  - ☒ fast
  - smart
  - informal
  - casual
- In London, I went to a couple of .....
  - restaurants
  - ☒ instruments
  - discos
  - trendy shops

2 Which of the words below are connected to the past and which to the present? Write them in the correct column.

trendy / classical / historical buildings / modern / trance / museums / traditional / rap

Connected to the Past	Connected to the Present
classical historical buildings museums traditional	trendy modern trance rap